

neth Butterfield, 25, and Eleanora Parham, 26, both colored.

Greenfield, Ind.—Cordia Martin confessed burglary of two stores, blowing of interurban station safe and breaking into safe of Knights-town furniture store.

Evansville, Ind.—Dr. Will Gilbert arrested charged with arson in connection with burning last year of Gilbert memorial sanitarium.

Copenhagen, Denmark.—Practically entire $40,000,000 estate of late Dr. Carl Jacobson, brewer, bequeathed to art societies and institutions.

Washington.—Rep. Mann, Illinois, announced that Sec'y of War and himself have agreed upon bill which Mann will introduce in Congress as solution of Chicago lake front proposition.

Washington. — Senate banking committee voted favorable report on nomination of John Skelton Williams to be comptroller of currency.

Pontiac, Ill.—Absolute prohibition of importation of Canadian grains containing thistle and quack-grass seeds urged by Livingston County Farmers' Institute.

Niagara Falls, N. Y.—Home of Frank Bongavani wrecked by bomb. Police looking for olive oil peddler who paid attention to Bongavani's wife and threatened to get even when rebuffed.

Plymouth, Eng.—Eleven men trapped in British submarine A-7 resting on bottom of Whitesand Bay abandoned to fate last night. Efforts to raise submarine discontinued.

Orange, N. J.—Miss Malviqa du Fresne of Lennox, Mass., charged with smothering to death her 3-day-old baby, exonerated by grand jury.

Washington.—Official count of Mexican refugees who fled to American soil after battle of Ojinaga: 513 officers, 1,081 men, 500 women, 53 children.

New York.—Jacob Pizer, who wants divorce, says he didn't complain when Mrs. Pizer chased him out of house and sold furniture, but objects to attempt to serve him carbolic acid gravy on outlet.

New York.—"Bald Jack" Rose, formerly gambler and collection of graft for police, has become evangelist.

New York.—C. Hines paid $330 at auction for lock of Lincoln's hair cut from around bullet wound night he was assassinated.

Potsdam, N. Y.—Having used tobacco for 80 years, Mrs. Nora Sullivan died at age of 110.

Racine, Wis.—Nels P. Johnson, 25, deserter from Norfolk, Va., navy yard, arrested on tip given police by his brother.

Brockton, Mass.—Four persons burned to death and eight others badly injured in fire in 3-story apartment house. $8,000 loss.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Andrew Hamilton McCullough, Pittsburgh, sophomore at University of Pennsylvania, suicided. Jumped into Delaware river.

Tokyo.—Fresh activity of Sakurashima volcano reported.

Cobscok, Ont.—4 girls and 2 boys between ages of 2 and 12 burned to death when home of Mrs. Weatherby was destroyed by fire.

San Francisco.—Man living here under name of A. B. Wood and his niece, Blanché, 24, found dead. Believed murder and suicide.

Washington. — Democrats of House rules committee decided against ordering investigation of Colorado coal strike and Calumet, Mich., copper strike.

Portland, Me. — Five-masted schooner Fuller Palmer abandoned in sinking condition. Crew saved.

FEDERAL LEAGUE BOSSES MEET

Federal Leaguers will hold a secret meeting today at which important matters will be discussed. President Gilmore denied the report that the Buffalo and Montreal franchises will be turned over to Cincinnati and Washington.